

HIGH SCHOOL OF AMERICAN STUDIES

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS AND REMINDERS

Friday, May 18, 2012

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR STUDENTS

1. Thank You: Thanks for your cooperation during the past two weeks of AP Exams!
2. Juniors: TODAY, Gail Reilly from the Center for Student Recruitment (SUNY) will give the Class of 2013 a comprehensive presentation on the SUNY system. All students must attend. The meeting will take place in the Gillet Auditorium during seminar.
3. Juniors: Save the date! On TUESDAY, after school, in Rooms 106/8, you will meet with Ms. Gorman to select courses for next year. This is a mandatory meeting. Please mark it on your calendar.
4. Juniors: Your senior portrait proofs have arrived and are in the art room.
5. Sophomores: Save the date! On THURSDAY, after school, in Rooms 106/8, you will meet with Ms. Gorman to select courses for next year. This is a mandatory meeting. Please mark it on your calendar.
6. Prom and Yearbook News: Tickets and the yearbook will be distributed during Period 5 TOMORROW. You may NOT pick up your tickets until that time. YOU MUST PICK UP YOUR OWN TICKET(S) AND YEARBOOK. NO EXCEPTIONS. You will not be admitted to the prom unless you have handed in payment and your permission slip(s) by Friday.
7. Environmental Club: We are sponsoring our annual Spring Hike up Breakneck Ridge. If in good shape, and ready to go on a six mile hike up a beautiful mountain, see Mr. Thoman for a permission slip. This trip will be on Saturday, May 26.
8. Senior Trip News: Show us the money! Payment is now OVERDUE for the trip!!!!
9. Seniors: Please come to an inter-active workshop for seniors and families to discuss the transition from HSAS to college life. Even students (and parents of students) who plan to commute will benefit from this informative event on Wednesday, May 30, from 5:30 to 7:30PM, at HSAS.
10. This Day in History: In 1989, a crowd of protesters, estimated to number more than one million, marched through the streets of Beijing, calling for a more democratic political system. On June 3, Chinese armed forces stormed into Beijing's largest plaza, Tiananmen Square, and swept the protesters away. Thousands were killed, and over 10,000 were arrested in what came to be known as the Tiananmen Square Massacre.