AMERICAN STUDIES BACK-TO-BACK CUP CHAMPIONS IN LADY'S TENNIS

by Abby Kastin, Girls Tennis Commissioner

A school from the Bronx and a school from Queens met for the PSAL Tennis Cup Championship. Two teams from different boroughs each with one goal in mind – to be the best.

The girls from American Studies worked diligently all season to return to the National Tennis Center and defend their championship. The girls from Bryant HS wanted to cap off their superb season and go home winners.

American Studies jumped out to a quick lead as 1st singles Yevgeni Mazlina won her match 6-0, 6-0 against Bryant's Aleksan Osman. Bryant was not daunted and responded with wins by 2nd singles Michelle Lau's 6-2, 6-3 victory over American Studies Elizabeth Borodkin and 3rd singles Alisa Jaganjac 7-5, 3-6, 6-2 win over Sara Yancovitz of American Studies.

The doubles teams would determine the match. This is where American Studies would shine. The American Studies 1st doubles team of Altagra Montilla and Naomi Burnside won in straight sets 6-4, 6-0 over Angelen Segovia and Marwa Elhababy. Angelique Petropouleas and Shizhu Zhang, American Studies 2nd doubles team, ended the day by winning their match 6-1, 6-0 over Bryant's Aldiana Jakupo and Margher Farruggio. Although the final score was American Studies 4, Bryant 1, it was a closely played match with two excellent teams.
